

Codes of Conduct for Coaches, Players and Parents

Omonia Youth FC values the role of sport and its contribution to overall human development by providing good quality footballing opportunities in a safe and positive environment.

Our club promotes personal, professional, and social well-being through footballing experiences, regardless of an individual's socio-economic status, age, gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, disability, or sexual orientation.

Our Codes of Conduct set minimum standards of best practice for everyone associated with the club, coaches, players, parents/carers and volunteers.

We must all aim to improve standards and protect the welfare and well-being of everyone involved in our club, in particular young footballers and those who are vulnerable.

We must all strive to embody values, virtues and standards of excellence appropriate to our club setting. Ultimately, we must actively pursue our goals, realising the importance of our own, and our fellow participant's commitment to uphold ethical duties and social responsibilities to others.

At the beginning of every season, every coach, player, parent and official has to read and sign a code of conduct.

Omonia Youth FC is fully supportive of the FA Respect campaign and details of each person's responsibilities are listed in the appropriate code of conduct sections, full details are available on the FA web site: <http://www.thefa.com/my-football/player/respect>

If you have any concerns regarding respect or welfare issues please contact the Club Welfare Officer.

Ensure that parents/spectators within our club are always positive and encouraging towards all of the children not just their own.

Parents/Spectators have a great influence on children's enjoyment and success in football. All children play football because they first and foremost love the game – it's fun. It is important to remember that however good a child becomes at football within the club it is important to reinforce the message to parents/spectators that positive encouragement will contribute to:

- Self-esteem
- Assist to improve the child's skills and techniques

- Applaud the opposition as well as your own team
- Avoid coaching the child during the game
